

ARE YOU A WORKER FACING A LAYOFF?

You're losing your job through no fault of your own, and there is nothing you can do to change what has happened. You and your colleagues will need support and guidance to re-create your career and move forward. We specialize in helping those affected by layoffs to get reconnected to the world of work.

Laid off Worker Resources:

Online Toolkits – to help you understand your options and choices

Layoff Assistance – at one of our many PeninsulaWorks Career Center locations

May is Dislocated Worker Month

"I had little motivation after losing my job. PeninsulaWorks built my confidence, and helped me to discover my natural abilities and use them in the work I am doing now."

"PeninsulaWorks helped me get over the shock of losing my job and introduced me to numerous training opportunities. I feel fortunate to have received all the support and guidance I did with them."

ARE YOU A BUSINESS FACING A DOWNTURN?

During economic downturns, businesses may be forced to reduce staff or even face closures. This difficult situation can be stressful for both management and employees. Our PeninsulaWorks team is dedicated to providing you and your laid off staff with options and resources to move forward.

Business Downsizing Resources:

Online Toolkits – to help you understand your options and choices

Retraining Options – for workforce transitions

Onsite Workshops – to provide laid off staff with information on unemployment insurance and training/career options

“We are very much in support of the Dislocated Worker Month campaign, as it really helps educate our local businesses about layoff aversion strategies and employment and training resources available through the public workforce investment system. Our members just need to know what’s available to them, and the campaign provides a key opportunity to do just that.”
